TEVITA DATA CENTER

Tevita international is initiation project "Power house". This involves construction of a data center in Konza city that is approximated to take two years. The project will involve construction of its buildings and installation of equipment.

The interested party should send their application to tevitaint@gmail.com .